Purina $200,000 champion-Tara Gaines riding Patrick La Dual Tara & husband Matt were also Pro/Am co-champions on Tara's favorite gelding.

horses are always ready. She rides most everyday at home on the older horses she shows, but Tim keeps her younger horses, like Pepper." Denton will be showing a half-brother to Lil Peppys Advantage this evening in the Open Futurity Semi-Finals. Meradas Peppy Cat is out of the same mare. Lil Peppys Advantage is by Hickorys Advantage out of Miss Pepe Ole, by Peppy San Badger. According to NCHA records, the gelding has $39,971 in lifetime earnings.

Carly, who also plays soccer, has been known to run barrels...but, at the end of the day, cutting is her mainstay. She has very understanding teachers that seem to be tolerant of her time spent on the road showing horses. "We're 20 minutes from Aspen, and there are a lot of kids who ski race there," said her father. "It seems like the teachers are used to kids being involved in very time consuming sports and activities; so they are very supportive."

While she competes in a division of competition largely dominated by more experienced adult exhibitors, Carly says she doesn't really battle nerves before showing. "There's really no need to be nervous," said the soft-spoken teen after one of her 221 runs. When she rides into the show pen, she says she only thinks about a couple of things. "I just think about making clean cuts, going slow, and having fun."

Paul Evert's RV Country Pro-Am

The Paul Evert's RV Country Pro-Am Finals proved to be a shootout between non-pro Tara Gaines, Weatherford, Texas aboard Patrick La Dual and Oklahoma trainer Bill Riddle and My Stylish Playgirl, owned by Glenn and Debbie Drake, ridden by daughter Devlyn. Both teams marked a 224 in the final round and opted to forego a work-off.

In the preliminary rounds of the Pro-Am competition, Riddle had marked the high score in the trainer leg of the event when he rode My Stylish Playgirl to a 227 that by far took the lead in the Pro-Am competition, until Gaines, who partnered up with husband, Matt, for the event, followed in the non-pro run the next day with a fancy 226! Both riders easily led their respective rounds coming into the finals, where the Co-Champions each took home checks for $2,217.

In addition to capturing the Pro-Am Co-Championship title, Tara Gaines rode Patrick La Dual to the Purina $200k Non-Pro class win and an additional $2,571 in prize money. "Next to Matt, this horse is the love of my life," said Tara, of the gelding by CD Olena and out of Patty La Dual, by Dual Pep. "He was a surprise from Matt in March of this year," she added. "I had always admired Patrick ever since Paul (Hansma) showed him at the futurity and then sold him to Dub & Christy Leeth. Christy showed him all through his aged-event career. Today was my 18th time to show ever. He is the kindest, sweetest horse. He's like a big teddy bear."

As the 2008 PCCHA Golden Hills Auto Center Futurity came to a close, one more successful year was logged into history for the event at its new home in Paso Robles. The City, once more an ideal host, played a key role in perpetuating a first rate venue. The tremendous support of the event, corporate and award sponsors once again secured the top notch payouts for which the PCCHA Golden Hills Auto Center Futurity has become known. All of these elements have become part of a solid west coast tradition that will, no doubt, continue and thrive in 2009.
