The Super Horse Award is designed to acknowledge the horse that accumulates the most points in their specific Junior and Senior divisions. If the same horse is being shown in both Junior and Senior divisions the points will be recorded and applied separately. This award was created to recognize the great horses that make it possible for our youth to enjoy this great sport of cutting by their consistency and wholehearted efforts in the cutting pen.

Last Youth Clinic!

August-14-15: White Oaks Farm-Castaic, CA

August 14th and 15th PCCHA will be sponsoring a 2 day Clinic. Trainers Al Dunning and Dell Bell will be conducting a two-day clinic, in preparation for the August 16th KCCHA Bakersfield Show. They will be teaching the kids the fundamentals of cutting, showing and general horsemanship. Since it is a two-day clinic, White Oak Farms will be providing a camp out along with a barbeque, and events. It will be limited to 20 kids so make sure to call and reserve a spot. It is sure to be an incredible two days of cutting and camaraderie. Please reserve by Aug. 8, 2008

Youth must be current PCCHA members to attend

For additional information go to www.pccha.com or call Debbie McGregor at the PCCHA Office: (209) 727-5779 ext 101 or e-mail: dmcgregor@pccha.com
