4. Entries are taken and processed per PCCHA Aged Event Entry rules. All owners and riders must be current PCCHA/NCHA members to compete.
5. Owner may enter as many horses as they choose. Open & Non Pro riders may ride as many horses as he/she chooses in their respective divisions. A Professional may ride the horse in the Open division and the owner (Non Pro so qualifying) may ride the same horse in the Non Pro division.
6. Trials: All horses entered in each division will work in the trials to be held before the actual event provided they meet all previously stated requirements. The Trials shall consist of two go-rounds for the Open and Non Pro divisions. Three and a half to (3.5) head of cattle per horse will be used in the Open and Non Pro go rounds. The top scoring 60% of the first go-round will advance to the second go-round, except those horses that mark a 0 or 180 shall not advance further. In the event there are less than 20 horses, there will be a pencil finals (non-working) after the go round(s) and no separate finals.
7. Semifinals: The top forty percent (40%) with a minimum of thirty (30) horses that have competed in both go-rounds of the Open and Non Pro divisions' Trials may advance to the Semifinals of each division. In the event that there are less than one hundred fifty (150) horses in the Open division of the Trials and one hundred twenty five (125) horses in the Non Pro, there will be no Semifinals for that division and the high scoring 20% (with a minimum of 8 and a maximum of 25) of the entries based on the number of horses drawn for the first go-round of the Trials may advance directly to the divisions' finals. In the event there are less than 20 horses, there will be a pencil finals (non-working) after the go round(s) and no separate finals. Each entry so qualifying for the divisions' Semifinals shall be paid the amount of the original nomination fee less video fee, turnback stall fee, drug fee and any late fees. In the event that a Semifinals is not held for a division, every contestant qualifying for the finals will be paid the amount of the original nomination fee less video fee, turnback stall fee, drug fee and any late fees. In the event a semifinals is held within a division the top fifteen (15) entries so competing will be eligible to advance to the Finals in their division.
8. Working Finals: Four (4) head of cattle per horse will be used. The purse for each division finals will consist of the entry fees plus the added purse which shall be divided according to the terms of paragraph #3 above. Finalists will be paid based on scores in the finals only to determine the placings. In the event of ties advancing to the finals, all finalists will receive money.

9. After the official announcement of horses qualifying for the Semifinals or the Finals, there shall be no additions or substitutions for any reason. If a qualifying horse is unable or prevented from competing, the owner thereof shall be responsible for payment of any additional fees owed.
10. The five (5) judge monitor system shall be used throughout.
11. If there are any ties for the Championship of a PCCHA event the purse will be distributed 50/50. A work off will be held only to determine the recipient of the awards, if the competitors so choose.
